Beatles Weekend Friday Night Events Sell Out; The Langham, Boston to Host Add-on Event for Fans Free Tickets Remain for Other Beatles Events September 13 & 14

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: August 28, 2014

Boston, MA—Events in The West End Museum's The Beatles Invade Boston: 50th Anniversary Celebration, which commemorates the band's first visit to Boston, are selling out. On Friday, September 12, the opening reception and reliving of the Fab Four's Hotel Madison press conference have reached capacity, but sponsors The Langham, Boston and the Boston British Consulate have stepped in with an add-on event. And free tickets remain for other Beatles events at the Museum throughout the weekend.

From 8:30 p.m. to midnight on September 12, Beatles fans are invited to BOND at The Langham, Boston (250 Franklin Street, Boston). Beatles cover band The Nowhere Men will play followed by a DJ spinning Beatles music. Guests are invited to come dance through the night and enjoy the show. The party is free and open to anyone 21 and over.

Other Beatles Weekend events at the Museum are still open. Admission is free, but advanced tickets are required. Go to www.thewestendmuseum.org and click on The Beatles Invade Boston: 50th Anniversary Celebration for links to event descriptions and ticket info.
