

THE WEST END MUSEUM

Residential Building Memberships

Background

WEM is excited to offer three different tiers of residential membership through which residents of a given building will be offered membership perks and exclusive access to neighborhood events alongside promotional opportunities for the building and its management company.

Memberships last a year. Residents are entitled to all the benefits outlined in the residential building's membership tier during this time frame. Buildings can choose to auto-renew their memberships for seamless and continuous residential benefits.

All residents of buildings with residential memberships receive certain benefits. Others, they have to register their membership online or in-person to redeem. See the information below for more details.
